BY CHILTON CROWD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In this prespondence of November 9 it was ated that Congressman Mansfield M. stated that Congressman Mansfield M. Neely had settled in his own mind that he would be a candidate for the nomination for governor and that he would, shortly after his return to Washington next month, issue a formal statement of that fact to the public. As a compliment to the impeachable authenticity of this news service, Democratic politicians here, further on East, and back in West Virginia graphed up their hammers or piped up is praise of it, and what degree of importance generally was to be attached to it. In the absence of a direct statement from the Fairmonter, the organization men the Fairmonter, the organization men have been at a loss what to do. One thing sure, they are not for Neely, and never have been. Whether they will be only time can tell. As forecasted in this correspondence, Neely will not spurn their support, but he does not intend to seek it. It is not on the program which he has mapped out for this further and larger adventure of his into the realm political. As heretofore stated, and as it will be shown within a short time, Neely's program calls for an independent attiprogram calls for an independent atti-ude toward the organization of his party and an independent appeal to Democratic voters, at the same time cautiously avoiding to start a fight on the powers that be. If there is to be that kind of a fight, the organization will have to throw the first brickbat.

Woods Settled On. Woods. Settled On:

It has been settled in the organization that the lineup would be Senator Chilton and Sam V. Woods, the latter for governor. The word had gone out along the line of machine trenches and the answer had started to come back in the shape of eulogistic interviews from organization men and a chorus of editorial encontums of Mr. Woods in that portion of the party press which carries the Chilton seal. It has been a fairly lungy choral and sounded like a death-knell to all other ambitions, those known to be nurtured in that direction by Congressman "Junior" Brown, of the Second district, and Major Neely, of the First, especially and in particular. In the latter's case the noise made for Woods by the orthe noise made for Woods by the or-ganization's bootsers did not cause the scare it was expected to. How Mr. Brown has been affected by it is not known. He is yet to be heard from

At this writing, Democratic politicians here, are handing to one apother, and discussing with eager interest and varying opinions, an editorial which appeared in the Fairmont Times of Monday's issue. It is unsigned, but bears the literary trademarks of Hon. Owen S. McKinney, the adjuty of that organization waves. signed, but bears the literary trademarks of Hon. Owen S. McKinney, the editor of that organization paper. The "leader" is captioned "Let Us Name a Big Man for Governor," and is accepted as a slam at the audacious aspiration of fellow townsman and brother-Democrat Neely to capture the nomination for governor. That article has certainly stirred things up here among the Democratic politicians. It is cordially approved—enthusiastically would not be to strong to state it—by the Chiltonians. And, strange as it may at first appear, it is not wholly disapproved by the local champions of the Neely cause. They seem to think that it will help rather than hurt the candidacy of Mansfield M. of Marion.

The very important thing to resember at Fairmont is a case in point. Neely refused to comply there when he knew that he could secure and hold the support of the McKinney newspaper, and the McKinney group by knuckling the McKinney and the party's candidate for governor is a question for the voters of the Demo-cratic party to decide, and not for Owen S. McKinney, Senator Chilton and a select set of handpicked henchmen and office holders to settle in advance. McKinney and his stripe of politicians have been picking our gubernatorial candidates for a good many years and a sorry job they have made of it.
